Billy R. Newby
Monterey, Tenn.

Dear Bill:

I am certainly looking forward to having the privilege of working with you next week. It has been a long time since our days at F. H. C.

As far as I know now I will be arriving Sunday morning just in time for the Bible School and Worship Service. I am planning to stay in Nashville Saturday night and will drive down Sunday morning.

Your letter and information concerning the prospects was surely encouraging and I am praying for a successful meeting.

I am sorry my wife will not be able to come with me due to her summer school work at Miami University.

This letter is written as a confirmation of the meeting. I hope to see you Sunday morning, the Lord willing.

Fraternaly yours,

John Allen Chalk
